Freeman on Ford

Freeman on Ford Bed & Breakfast is a former Oriental Bank and convent, circa 1876. It became the second Brigidine convent in Australia.
 The building was designed by noted architect Leonard Terry (The Melbourne Club, and various mansions and banks in Melbourne).
 The grand building has been lovingly restored and is in the main street of Beechworth.
 It is situated in the most enviable position in town (the cultural end).

An elegant, luxurious Bed & Breakfast

Find yourself in the heart of town, staying in Beechworth's first and currently only five STAR and Eco Friendly accredited Bed and Breakfast.
